Your best friend or a family member will appreciate a copy of this book. It is important that we continue to encourage ourselves in our walk with God. It is important that we continue to read, study and meditate so that in times of trouble we will not falter but gird our loins and stand for right, not evil. ## An Important Message To My Readers Regarding the Religious Nature of My Books

Someone recently remarked my books have too many references to religion in them. Do not let the religious verses or the use of the word Jesus or God disturb you or deter you from reading my books. I am neither a member of the American Taliban, a Separatist nor a Hate monger. I write from Love, the most powerful force on earth. Indoctrination is not my purpose. Encouragement and enlightenment is my purpose. I want people to see as far as they can see and walk as far as they can walk based on all the faith they have and all that they can believe. Even if you do not believe in God you can learn much from this book. Any discussion of ethics and morals is a good thing. Ethical discussions purge evil thoughts. "We are apt to shut our eyes against a painful truth... For my part, I am willing to know the whole truth; to know the worst; and to provide for it." Patrick Henry, 1776. My books are like no other books you have read. Take this challenge purchase the book Be Not Defeated in Hard Times and determine for yourself the nature of my heart and the purpose of my labor. You will learn much from reading me. I have worked long and hard at this task.

I know as soon as some people sees the word Jesus or God they become disheartened or fearful that they are reading a book that is trying to convert them or make them feel inferior. I am not a religious fanatic nor am I a person who believes I know all the answers and that I can tell everyone else what to do or how to live. I do not believe in shooting abortion doctors or bombing abortion clinics in the name of God. Nor do I believe in back room deals by the church to control the rights of others. Do not judge the work of my hands by the hate filled words of some men you hear on television denigrating people who do not look or act like them. These men may have started out walking with God but in their zeal they have lost their way. They have become tormentors instead of enlighteners. Christ came for everyone and Christ exists for everyone. No one has a hand up on God. God's word can refresh you. God's word can restore your belief in yourself. God's words can make you smile and be glad you have a wife and family. I wrote my books to make you joyful and to make you happy that you are alive. I wrote my books to give you tools to use when you are fearful and unsure of yourself and to give you courage when you are afraid. No one has a monopoly on God. Nowhere in the Bible can you find one passage where God or Jesus said men should be led to God by force or condemnation. Calling people names and foreshadowing gloom and doom on a nation is not a practice of Jesus Christ this is the practice of a bully.

I know Jesus was not a bully. He was not a member of a gang. Jesus did not beat any one up or isolate and brainwash anyone to get them to believe in the word of God or do as directed. Jesus merely said, "I am the light of the world and he that believeth in me shall never die. I have come so that you might experience life more abundantly." Jesus told man man, has a chose in all his behavior. Do not be afraid of the bullies you see on television who invoke the name of God yet make everyone who do not believe as they do the enemy. God will take care of these men. That is right I said it all the preachers you see on television or hear on the radio who preach gloom and doom, who preach to divide people and present themselves as the perfect Christians shall be dealt with by God.

All the men you see and hear who use code words to separate people based on color, national origin and sexual persuasion shall be dealt with by God. All the religious men you see and hear who make deals with rich men in the dark shall be dealt with by God. The power they illicit is not the power man has forever when he follows God. The power these men illicit to enslave other men by this back room deals will be exposed in the name of God and they shall burn in hells fire. These men have bastardized Christianity. Nowhere in the Bible did God or Jesus instruct any holy man, preacher or rabbi or priest to use His word to whip men into submission; to deny a man his daily bread causing men to falsely worship Him. Surely God's word alone is enough to cause men to follow Him.

Christianity was not given to man by God to be used as a bullwhip by bullies.

Christianity was given to the world to relieve the suffering of man and anyone who does not follow this edict shall be dealt with by God. That's right the person who preaches before you every Sunday shall be judged by God just like you will be judged for what is in his or her heart. Just because a man can talk faster than you and profess to know the Bible better than you does not make him better than you. The equalizer is God. God shall judge the man who on one hand condemns the sinner yet fails to help the women who come to him for help against her abusive husband. God shall judge the preacher who talks out of both sides of his mouth. Look at the preachers who rely upon women to fundraise for a church roof or other church needs then these preachers turn around and say no woman has place of leadership in the church. It is alright for women to provide the church with money but after the money is collected they are to sit down and shut up. It is alright to prostitute women but they can have no voice when it comes to church matters or fulfilling the needs of women.

Think about it, do you think every member of the Sanhedrin that judged

Jesus as a subverter of God's word got into heaven? These men did not like Jesus. They were jealous of Jesus. They envied Jesus and some hated Jesus. Jesus could do what they could not. They could not heal the sick. They could not raise the dead. If Jesus rose in power surely their power would diminish. Jesus did not look like them or walk like them so they condemned him. Do you think these men were judge pious and holy by God when they rejected Jesus' teachings. The Sanhedrin presented themselves as leaders, men of God, keepers of the faith. Yet they rejected Jesus because he was different from them. He refused to join their gang. They believe it was their duty to tell everyone else how to live. In their belief they condemned Jesus because he was different from them. Jesus refused to join their gang. Jesus refused to walk around town with his chest stuck out wearing the vestments of the church. Jesus did not want religious slaves in his church. Jesus wanted free thinking men in his church. You do not have to be a member of a religious gang to believe in God or to serve God. Every man including the man who preaches to you every Sunday shall be judged by God for the hatred in his heart and for all the suffering he brings upon his fellowman. Contrast the men of the Sanhedrin with Mary Magdalene. She accepted Jesus wholeheartedly yet women have no place in the church. She loved Jesus and was thankful for his forgiveness. He blessed her by making her the first person on this earth to see Jesus after he was resurrected. She was a woman yet she was one of Jesus' most devoted disciples, yet you have men today who still refer to women as chattel and continuously work toward enslaving women both physically and emotionally.

I do not believe calling myself a Christian makes me superior than anyone else. Man should be judged by his deeds, and the filth that comes from his mouth. I know for a fact that God's greatest commandments are to love the lord with all thy heart and with all thy might and to love thy neighbor as thyself. One cannot love the lord yet excuse himself or herself when adultery or fornication is committed yet turn around and condemn others for their behavior. This is the height of hypocrisy. If you cheat on your taxes, you cheat on your taxes. The crime does not change just because you call yourself a Christian. In other words cheating as a Christian is no different than the cheating of a secular man. There are just as many adulterers in church as there are outside the church. And there are just as many fornicators inside the church as there are outside the church. Anyone can talk moral superiority but it is what one does behind closed doors or what one does when no one is looking that determines character. Anyone can talk the talk but it is the walk that determines your destiny and identifies you as a believer.

Some arguments are stupid and trying to prove the existence of a God or disprove the existence of god falls in this category. I leave it to God to prove His existence since man defines God as omnipotence and all powerful,. Man does not have sufficient evidence to prove or disprove either assertion. It is a matter of choice. God can take care of Himself. He can fight His own battles. He can prove His own existence. All I care about is that God shows up when I call Him. I want Him to keep His word in my life.

My ultimate goal is that my books help make the world a better place to live. I am tired of people giving up on their lives because the bullies and the evil forces in this country seek to enslave them. Doubt and unbelief does not have to be a mainstay in your life. You do not have to live your life vicariously through true romance novels or Monday Night Football. You do not have to die after eating a bowl of grief and despair. You can live a decent life with a wife or husband you adore.

Only you know how lonely you are. Only you know how many times you have been tempted to use marijuana to make yourself feel better. Only you know what you feel and need. Only you know how many times you have been tempted to commit murder after someone has injured you or tempted to commit suicide after hearing bad news. Neither murder nor suicide is the answer. You are to never let any man or woman cause you to hate yourself so much that you consider murder or suicide. The best defense against evil doers (bullies) is knowledge and physical development.

You cannot be angry with God without believing there is a God and you cannot believe in God without believing in an evil force.

I want this book to be food for thought and a tool to answer some of life's most challenging questions. I want this book to help the person who gets up every morning fighting the feeling of fear, loneliness and doubt. I want you to learn to recognize and avoid negative people. You must watch who is feeding your mind.

I want you to know you do not have to fail in life. All you have to do is believe in the power inside you and you will be the prophet of your life.

I am not asking you to follow me blindly. In fact I am not asking you to follow me at all. I am asking you to consider your conduct and change as you feel necessary. Ponder what I have written. Question what I have written. Are my aspirations for this country the same as your aspirations? Make up your own mind. Ask yourself, "Is there anything in this book I can use to enhance my life and make my life better?" If the answer is yes, learn what you can from my writing and make it your goal to be a better person regardless of the circumstances. Ethics and character found in men is what keeps a civilization intact and its citizens happy.

"Bad men cannot make good citizens. It is impossible that a nation of infidels or idolaters should be a nation of freemen. It is when a people forget God that tyrants forge their chains. A vitiated state of morals, a corrupted public conscience, is incompatible with freedom. No free government, or the blessings of liberty, can be preserved to any people but by a firm adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, frugality, and virtue; and by a frequent recurrence to fundamental principles."

Patrick Henry, May 29, 1736 – June 6, 1799, an American statesman - He hailed from Virginia

In the past 12 years I have researched the murders of 20,000 American women and I have written 30 books. I conducted this research at a great cost to my sanity and health. I did this research not only because I believe in the rights of women but because I love my country. I loved my country when I entered the United States Air Force during the Vietnam War. I loved my country when I participated in the civil right marches in Mississippi in the 1960's and I loved my country when America elected its first Black president in 2008. I performed this research and wrote these books because I want this country to become a better place to live. I want children to be fed daily. I am tired of learning of children being raped in their beds by unrelated males in the home. I want women to stop negotiating with their bodies believing their bodies are all God gave them to earn a living. I want children to live in the home with their parents. I want to see an end to foster care. I want to see more stable families so we can stop producing men who rape and murder because they are angry with their mothers. I want more sex offenders imprisoned. I want posses formed to search for the assailants of Black women as posses are formed to search for the assailants of White women. I want incest to be defined as rape and prosecuted as such. I want adult males who prey upon female juveniles to be imprisoned. We must again prosecute men for statutory rape thereby protecting the young. I want the pimps of this country dealt with. Who are they to sell women?

I want more money allocated for the FBI to hire more men and women to rid our county of those individuals who seek to sexually enslave women. I want the men and women of the FBI to be so trained that the word integrity becomes part of their last name. Let no man say they can be purchased. I want the FBI to give the men who bring women to this country to be used as prostitutes a good thrashing. Forcing women into prostitution who are fleeing poverty and seeking employment is a crime we in this country cannot tolerate. Well over 5 million men and women either gave their lives, or became infirmed to protect this country in war time (no one returns from combat the same). Are we to spit on their deeds by allowing slavery within our borders? We fought a civil war to end slavery so if we allow sexual slavery in our country we are saying the men who died during the Civil War do not matter; integrity is just a label, and American will do anything for money. The American Civil War was the defining moment in this county. The American Civil War should not be forgotten just because it took place more than 150 years ago. The men who fought in this war deserve to be remembered. Entire generations were lost on the battlefield. Family lines ended during this war. Are such sacrifices to be forgotten just because the sacrifice took place years ago? The American Civil War is the most important war America has ever fought. This war pitted brother against brother, neighbor against neighbor. What greater battle can there be than a battle between brothers. Are we moving so fast into the future that we disrespect the past? Did Patrick Henry die so long ago that we do not remember his cry and his honor, "Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty, or give me death! He moved a nation with these words. Not only do these men deserve to be remembered the reason for the war should be remembered, the end of one man's right to own another. Consequently, how can we allow a man to come to this country and use the body of a woman to earn money?

I also wrote these books because I want people to begin questioning what they read in the newspapers and question the motive of the person reporting the news. I want people to begin to spend more time together. I want women, children, and the elderly protected, and most of all I want people to be encouraged to live the life they desire. I believe in man. I believe in the men in this country. I believe when called upon the men in this country can be better men than any conceived. I believe with encouragement and knowledge men and women can live better and happier lives. I also wrote this book because I want men to know they do not need alcohol, marijuana or crack to deal with the problems in life. I want men to know there is courage inside them. There is fealty inside of them and most of all there is the power of God inside of them.

We should not forget where we came from, who we are, what we stand for, why we fought, or why we died.

Again, knowledge is the best weapon against evil. Seek knowledge through reading so your life will not be defined by pain and fear but defined by enlightenment and courage.

Author's statement

If you have read a few of my books you realize by now that my books focus on the evilness that is used to seduce men and women. The various subjects I have tackled have been negative thinking, the destructive consequences of negative thinking, fear, lust, envy, jealousy, ignorance, greed, lack of confidence, lack of self esteem, disrespect, how to discipline one's thinking, how to develop power and to become self reliant. In discussing these subjects I try to offer biblical examples as to how men and women can bring one's flesh under control and how we all can make difficult decisions and thereby change. In all modesty these books are unlike any other books written. I want to awaken my readers to the life they are suppose to lead on earth. I want to give my readers God's tools to change their life so they can be the man or woman God called you to be. The challenge in life is to meet change with change.

In this book my primary goal is to discuss:

How do we control and rid our bodies of Anger?

How do we develop patience and self control?

How do we avoid snapping at people?

How do we avoid inappropriate speech?

How do we identify weaknesses in ourselves and develop the strength to say no?

How do we forget the past?

How do we bring our emotions under control?

I desire to put my books into the hands of millions of people. I want to expose their minds to the word of God and have them answer Him when He calls them. Several years ago a man was being executed for the murder of a woman. As the doctor was injecting the poison into the man's vein, the condemned man was reciting the 23rd Psalms. This man knew there was a god he just chose not to follow him for that period in his life. This man is not the only executed man who went to his death with the word of God on his lips. Men know there is a God they just do not have a working relationship with this god. They do not know who they are or what they are capable of doing or what God is capable of doing for a man who prays and believes. The men do not realize that a relationship with God is what will put the tensile strength into their labor and cause them to live successful lives without violence. As you read this book maybe you will think of this man and come to the opinion that this man did not believe. He did not rely upon God to provide answers in his life. In order to live a successful life there is one thing that you must know

You Have To Believe.

You must believe. It is critical that you understand this point. You must believe. It will be your belief that will carry you into your future. Saying to yourself I believe is not enough. Your behavior must demonstrate that you believe. Going to church listening to the pastor and referring to your Bible at the appropriate time and returning home to eat Sunday's dinner is not belief. Belief is an action that is demonstrated and singing hymns in church does not demonstrate faith and belief. Singing in church is a ritual not belief.

You are a failure in life because you call yourself a failure and you do not believe. You lost your job because you do not believe. You stop going to school because you do not believe. You are living in a sewer because you do not believe. When you do not believe all things are possible, you live beneath yourself and death is the consequence.

You must believe.

When you do not believe you settle for any life style. When you do not believe you take to bed the first man you meet. When you do not believe you never leave the house looking for a job. When you do not believe you beat your wife because you thinking she is flirting with every man she sees. When you do not believe you put marijuana in your mouth to quell you anxiety. When you do not believe you faint at the first sign of trouble.

"From 1999 to 2007, the number of U.S. poisoning deaths involving any opioid analgesic (e.g., oxycodone, methadone, or hydrocodone) more than tripled, from 4,041 to 14,459, or 36% of the 40,059 total poisoning deaths in 2007. In 1999, opioid analgesics were involved in 20% of the 19,741 poisoning deaths. During 1999–2007, the number of poisoning deaths involving specified drugs other than opioid analgesics increased from 9,262 to 12,790, and the number involving nonspecified drugs increased from 3,608 to 8,947."

There is a chasm between what you say and what you believe.

There is a chasm between your going to church and having a good time and coming away from church with a part of God in you.

There is a chasm between your putting a pretty leather bound Bible on your coffee table and putting God's word in your heart and mouth.

There is a chasm between your being faithful to your spouse and you consulting God regarding your behavior toward your spouse.

You must believe.

When you believe you act on the belief. When the weather man says it is going to rain you pack an umbrella. You act on the weatherman's word. Yet when God says he has answered you before you have finished praying do you act on His promise? That is what you must examine. How many times do you act on man's word but never act on God's promises. From now on keep track of how many times you act on man's word and never act on God's promises.

Take time from your day and pour over the scriptures I have introduced. At sometime during your life these scriptures will apply to you. Your mental stability and happiness is worth the time you spend with God. We all will face moments of personal crisis where there seems to be no hope in sight but if you have taken the time putting God's word into your spirit you will find your belief strengthened where you will start acting in belief of God's word.

I know I have placed a tremendous amount of information in this book.

Please read it over and over again. You have the time.

Find a quiet area in your home and begin to read. You will not regret taking the time out of your busy day to find out what a stranger has to say.

It took Twelve (12) year of my life to get to this juncture. Let me share the experience with you.

God Bless and may peace be with you.

Introduction

Before you begin reading Be Not Defeated in Hard Times please read Isaiah 65:24 several times. Now read Jeremiah 33: 3 several times. God said in Isaiah 65:24 ...and it shall come to pass that before they call I will answer, and while they are yet speaking I shall hear. Firmly implant this verse in your mind so that every time you think of praying you will say to yourself, "God is going to hear me, God said before I finish praying He shall answer me. " Yet here I want to stop you for a second. There is one rub in this passage that sends people reeling, you will be right in believing God will hear you and He will answer your prayer but He may not answer your prayer as you wish. He may provide what He thinks is right for you but you may not be in agreement. What you pray for may not be what you need therefore when we do not receive what we have prayed for we think there is not god or God does not care for us.. You must understand God can see further down the road than you. You may be praying to purchase your first Cadillac but God knows one of your children will develop a life threatening disease and you will need more house hold money; so your purchase of a Cadillac will have to wait until the emergency blows over.

Reading Isaiah 65:24 to yourself each day will keep you hopeful it will give you courage to face the day. This passage tells you, you can rely upon God. This passage is one of the most powerful verses in the Bible it is the foundation of your relationship with God. He said I shall answer you before you finish speaking. Man cannot perform as well. Man has to consult his maps and charts before he can tell you about the weather. And man surely cannot tell you what will occur in the future.

Count on God. Stop relying on the world to tell you what to do. Now consider this: In the 1960's man told women that it was alright to shack up with a man. We will no longer judge you harshly. It is ok for you to have a baby and not be married. You can just stand on a mound of grass and plague yourself to one another and that will be fine. Well, what is the result of this promise? Devastation! We have 25 million children running around this country living without their fathers and many of them have turned into monsters. Not one of these children is eligible for social security because they do not bear their fathers name. The father's name is absent from the birth certificate. The male children who have been abandoned are so filled with anger that they are killing women at an escalated rate. There is a man sitting on death row in Tennessee and he is an abomination to God. The sum total of his entire life merged into the destruction of two individuals who had never done him any harm. He murdered two strangers: how much anger he must contain. I do not if even the word of God can help him. This man was sexually abused as a child and he has not forgotten the abuse. In fact the abuse is at the center of his thought every waking moment of his life. He saw two innocent people and unleashed his fury on the world. The world had destroyed his life with all its rules and regulations now he was going to destroy two innocent people. A murder like this also happened in Colorado, Texas and California where the sexually abused child response to the world's rejection of him. Any time society does not protect a child that is rejection.

Society uses its power to take a child from his mother yet society does not use its power to protect that child from sexual abuse in the foster care system.

The only thing our foster care system has done is accomplish the destruction of children. Why was there not work done to restore the family, correct what was broken, repair the broken psyche of the woman that was abandoned. No society took children from the bosom of their mothers and let them be prey to sexual deviants who turn these children into alcoholics and dope addicts. Do you know there are women in this country with two sons on death row?

"Illicit drug use is associated with suicide, homicide, motor-vehicle injury, HIV infection, pneumonia, violence, mental illness, and hepatitis. An estimated 3 million individuals in the United States have serious drug problems. Several studies have reported an undercount of the number of deaths attributed to drugs by vital statistics; however, improved medical treatments have reduced mortality from many diseases associated with illicit drug use.

In keeping with the report by McGinnis and Foege, we included deaths caused indirectly by illicit drug use in this category. We used attributable fractions to compute the number of deaths due to illicit drug use. Overall, we estimate that illicit drug use resulted in approximately 17000 deaths in 2000, a reduction of 3000 deaths from the 1990 report."

This man could not have been raised with a father if he were his father was a very foolish man. This man did not get to be a monster by himself society helped. The man on death row in Tennessee was created in to this state because a woman believed the promises of man, "you can shack up with a man and have a child without the benefit of marriage and it will be ok by the world's standards." She believed man's promise and the result is having a son waiting on death row until man executes him for two counts of first-degree murder. If you can believe the promises of man, why can you not believe the promises of God?

Before they call I will answer, and while they are yet speaking I shall hear.

In Jeremiah 33:3 God said, "And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. You must know that anything that God says is immutable. This information must be important because God told Isaiah and Jeremiah to give this information to man. His word will always be fulfilled. It is important that you understand these two verses because these verses apply to your situation. If you cling to God's word, you will turn away from evil doings when you are tempted. Lack of money will tempt you toward an evil deed. Not having a place to stay will tempt you toward an evil deed. Having no friends will tempt you to an evil deed.
