

You cannot tell a rapist by his Appearance you can only identify a rapist by his Conduct.
His greatest Weapon is his Smile. His primary Objective is Opportunity.

Four women were raped and murdered in Maryland. The women were Ms. Boontem Anderson age 34, of Gambrills, a mother of two, Ms. Elaine Buchanan Shereika age 37, a mother, Miss Lisa Haenel age 14, of Glen Burnie, and Debra Cobb age 37, a mother of two. Boontem Anderson was murdered October 8, 1986. Elaine Buchanan Shereika was raped and murdered May 23, 1988. Elaine Shereika left her home at 5:20 am to go jogging. A health activity many women across the nation had adopted. While jogging Elaine Shereika was murdered. There are three activities that women participate in that draws stalkers; one activity is waiting on tables the other activities are jogging and walking to school. Both of these activities allow a person to see for hours watching their intended victim from afar allowing them to gather information on their habits, timings and other associations such as the husband or boyfriend. These activities also allow for the woman to be followed home. Miss Lisa Haenel was assaulted and murdered January 15, 1993 while on the way to school. Their murders remained unsolved for almost 20 years while their families anxiously waited resolution. Debra Cobb, an office manager of Forestville, Maryland, was raped and murdered in 1994. Her assailant who worked in the same office plaza was apprehended, convicted then sentenced December 1994. He was sentenced to life in prison without parole. When her assailant was convicted of murdering Debra Cobb, he told the judge he had a drug problem hoping this would mitigate his sentence. He was hoping for a lesser sentence so that some day he could leave prison as a free man. He was only 24 years old. He could survive a 30 year sentence. The man's name was Alexander Wayne Watson Jr. What no one knew the day Alexander Watson was sentenced is that Mr. Watson had been killing since he was 17 years old. He killed people he knew, people who lived in his neighborhood, and strangers who crossed his path. He watched Lisa Haenel walk to school each morning. In 2004 at the age of 34 Alexander Watson was arrested in prison and charged with the rape and murder of Boontem Anderson; the rape and murder of Elaine Shereika and the murder of Lisa Haenel. Apparently in 2003 Maryland's law had caught up with technology. Three DNA samples taken from three different murder scenes matched Mr. Watson's DNA that was in the state's data bank. In 2004 the arrest was made and three families were forced to once again deal with the murder of their mother, their child, their sister, the cousin etc. Three families had to sit in court and look at the man who irrefutably changed their lives forever. They came face to face with a man who was evil, a man who could never be redeemed. Mr. Watson was sentenced to three life terms in prison rather than being forced to face the death penalty for the murder of Elaine Shereika. He was an adult when he murdered her he was a juvenile when he murdered Boontem Anderson and 14 year old Lisa Haenel. No one from his family was in the courtroom when he was convicted and sentenced. This case represents the circumstances of what is considered stranger murders. In these cases the assailant and the victim have just a tangential relationship. They meet at one point in time example at a bus stop, or as a customer as an employee in a liquor store or convenience store or they are linked through someone else's relationship example a son visiting his mother in a senior citizen building. He worked at a fast food restaurant with one of the victim's son. The solution of stranger and acquaintance murders is causing investigators to now look throughout the neighborhood not just for adult males but for juveniles. You cannot tell a rapist by what he looks like or his age you can only identify a rapist by his conduct.

In 2010 Mr. Guy Shannon Jr., 45, was arrested for driving while intoxicated. Because of state law his DNA was taken. When his DNA matched the DNA taken from the body of a murder victim, he was arrested in 2012 for the March 1989 rape and murder of Marcia Lynn Davis, 20. Miss Davis was strangled to death. He will now have to answer in court why his DNA was found in the body of Miss Lynn who was raped and murdered in an abandoned building in Kansas City, Missouri. The point here is Mr. Shannon has been walking around this country for 23 years looking in the faces of women and not one woman knew he was a possible rapist and murderer. Not one woman; not his aunt, not his mother, not his sister, not his grandmother, not his cousin, not his coworkers, not one woman, who came in contact with this man in the past 23 years ever thought he was capable of rape and murder. If they did they kept their suspicions to themselves. Mr. Shannon Jr. was AWOL from the Marines when Marcia Davis was murdered. You cannot tell a rapist by what he looks like you can only identify a rapist by his conduct. Now we await the jury's verdict in the death of Marcia Lynn Davis, 20, March 1989. Regardless of the verdict the women of this country should say enough is enough why are we allowing violent predators back on the street. We need to work for legislation for these men to remain locked up forever. Why must we wait until five or six women are murdered before we act? When Gerald Montgomery, 35, was arrested for the March 9, 2007 abduction, rape and murder of Laura Winterbottom, 31, his wife said her husband had gone downtown at about 9 p.m. the night of Winterbottom's death and returned about 1:30 the next morning with a red stain down one arm. Montgomery told his wife he had "jacked" someone. Other rapists have told their wives that the blood in or on the car was because they had hit a deer on the road. Leona Montgomery told police that after the killing Montgomery was nervous, not sleeping, "and spent a number of days looking out the apartment windows as if he was waiting for something or someone." He chose to plea bargain with the prosecutor for a reduced sentence. Ms. Winterbottom was a graphic designer. She was abducted from a restaurant parking lot after having dinner with her sister. The operative word to describe a rapist is the word opportunity. Can he see an opportunity to snatch and disable his victim putting him in control? This is how Dru Sjordin was murdered. Her assailant saw an opportunity. She was talking on the phone allowing him to get close to her. All a rapist needs is opportunity. He will act. He will act immediately or return after surveilling the area several times setting up the kill scene (Lisa Haenel). A rapist is always looking for an opportunity. He will smile to appear friendly and look for isolation or helplessness in his victim. Above all he will strike. Ask yourself have I set up an environment for a rapist to strike. If so correct your behavior. The reason why the rapist has been successful is that women have failed to realize more than half the assaults committed against women are not related to domestic violence. We are so preoccupied with the word domestic violence the rapist has escaped our attention. We need to consider all assaults against women.

Remember Mr. L Brandon Scott Lavergne, 33, of Lafayette, Louisiana. He was convicted in 2000 of aggravated oral sexual battery. He was sent to prison but was released in 2008. He murdered Michaela Shunick in 2011. It was not until the investigation into the rape and murder of Miss Shunick did authority learn Mr. Lavergne raped and murdered Lisa Pate June 1999 after abducting her from her home in Lafayette, Louisiana. They had a murderer in prison and did not know it. Miss Shunick was murdered after Mr. Lavergne was released from parole. We do not know how many women he murdered.

It contains extremely sensitive information; our apologies and condolences to the reader if this information is regarding a relative, love one and or friend. Although this book contains in certain areas explicit descriptions of violence, extreme care was taken to allow the victims as much dignity as possible. As you read you will realize these descriptions were made to expand our understanding of violence and to prevent violence against women and children and violence in our communities.

In an effort to learn how well our book was read we have a question to ask. What is the name of the man who murdered all the women listed for his state in the injury section of this book? And what is the name of the state where he is known to have murdered and how many women is it known that he murdered? What is the name of the man who was sentenced to death in three states?

Rejection and Poverty

Prologue

Before you begin reading I would like you to read about the murder of Betty Jean Lee. I wrote about her in the book It Is Time To Start Walking With God. I want her story to be read again. I think her death is important to every woman living in this country.

The Value of Friendship

Betty Jean Lee, 36, lived in Shiprock, New Mexico. She was the mother of five children. She was going to school to be a nurse. Her family said she was a dedicated member of the family. She was a caring person, a good daughter and sister. When her family learned of her death, they were devastated. On the last day of her life, June 9, 2000, Betty Lee went out with two of her girlfriends. The women went to a bar in Farmington, New Mexico. There the women met two men. Betty Lee did not pair up with anyone, so she became the fifth wheel. After some drinking, her two girlfriends decided to leave the bar with the two men they met. They went to a motel. Betty Lee pled with them not to leave her, but they left her stranded without a ride home. They made no effort to help her contact a family member to give Betty Lee a ride home. Betty Lee went to a convenience store to try and reach her brother, a Navajo police officer. She could not reach her brother, so she accepted a ride from a man who said he would help her. He had a smile on his face. Needless to say, he murdered her that night in the desert. After the supposedly good Samaritan and his buddy bludgeoned Betty Lee to death, the men went for a joy ride in the desert to celebrate the murder. An electrical foreman found Betty Lee's body the next morning and called the police.

Her assailants were apprehended because their vehicle became trapped in the sand the night of their joy ride and had to be towed. When Ms. Lee's body was found, the police traced the tire tracks near the body to a cell phone found in the desert several miles away. The cell phone belonged to Mr. Charlie Bergen, who explained to the police that he was called out to the desert around 3 a.m. to pull two cars and a tow truck out of the sand. His wife phoned him while he was working. He became so angry he threw the phone away (an act of God). The cell phone led the police to the men whose car's was towed. Sufficient forensic evidence was collected to charge the two men with murder. The murder weapons, a knife and a sledge hammer, were left at the scene. As usual, the weakest man confessed. Men can kill, but they do not do well under interrogation. They normally fold under pressure. It is easy to kill a defenseless woman, but it is not easy to deal with a man face to face. Murder is a cowardly act performed by cowards. The murder of Ms. Lee was so horrendous and barbaric that I will not describe it. I truly do not like these two men, so I do not want their names in this book. Over time, may their names be obliterated from humanity and they will be buried without a grave marker?

The man who did the actual killing was sentenced to death. His death sentence is remarkable because New Mexico juries do not like sentencing anyone to death. When this person was sentenced to death, there were only two men on death row in New Mexico. In New Mexico, unanimity is required for a guilty verdict as well as for imposition of the death penalty. He deserved the death sentence because, unbeknownst to the jury, he had killed two men earlier in the year. The murderer was also sentenced to 46 years for tampering with evidence and kidnapping. The second man pled guilty to the killing and is now serving a life sentence. He agreed to testify against his buddy. He said that the men noticed Betty Lee because she was sobbing because her girlfriends left her stranded. Her girlfriends practically told her, "Get home the best way you can."

Betty Lee tried to save her life after being stabbed by pulling the knife out of her chest and running back toward the road. This is when her assailant attacked her with the sledgehammer.

What can be said of the women who left Betty Lee at the bar to fend for herself? Would you want your daughter to go out with these women or to call them friends?

Is it not mind-boggling that Ms. Lee was murdered because she was left behind? What kind of human were her two friends? New Mexico is no stranger to violence against women. There are a host of unsolved murders involving women, and these murders have been covered in the newspapers and the local news in New Mexico. We can list over thirty unsolved homicides involving women murdered at night. New Mexico has seen too many murders of females committed by men on the prowl at night for anyone to say that Betty Jean Lee was not in any danger when she was left alone.

We say that we are blameless and white as the driven snow, yet we wonder why God has not blessed us. The answer probably lies in our past deeds. How are you a friend if you are not responsible for your friend's safety? What is the value of a friend if you do not care for her life? How many times have you seen your friend safely home? Now five children are left motherless.

Remember Arthur Bomar and Others Like Him

He sat quietly watching his prey until she left the bar.

Please remember this book was written to help women identify rapists living among us and to remind all females women must always be alert. The most common characteristic of all rapists is that all rapists are men. You have read 432 pages in Volume Three Part One and each page told you that all rapists are men. This means your father, brother, uncle, stepfather, cousin, stepbrother, step son, grandfather, boyfriends, ex-boyfriends and suitor have a 100% chance of being a rapist. I want you to repeat this phrase, all rapists are men. Let this phrase sink into your spirit. All rapists are men, this means your husband, and ex-husband, your uncle, father, brother, and stepfather, cousin, stepbrother, step son, boyfriends, ex-boyfriends, suitor and your grandfather have a 100% chance of being a rapist. The likelihood that he practices this profession is fifty-fifty. Yes being a rapist is a profession a profession that some men practice with zeal? They take pride in their work and they are constantly perfecting their craft. Some rapists do have dormant periods. Please remember any male that you approach has a 100% chance of being a rapist. A rapist does not wear his profession on his face like Dracula or the Werewolf. His identity is determined by his actions not by his clothing, facial expression or race. He does not have to be a practicing rapist but a rapist none the less. Some men rape intermittently once every one or two years (Patrick Baxter Volume Two) or they rape and murder once a trigger is introduced into their life. There can be a stressor that sets him off or he may live a fantasy where he imagines himself a threat where women are living in terror of him. He maybe in the preparation stage of his development or he may have taken his first step to realizing his ambition (Christopher Righetti, age 14). Patrick Baxter raped an 8 year old when he was 13 years old. He was just getting started. He went on to murder 14-year-old Michelle Walker in 1987, 19 year old Patricia England in 1988 and 25 year old Lisa Gibbens in 1990. He was not convicted until 2002. Raymond Williams of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania raped and murdered Carmen Berrocal, 18, June 25, 1989 when he was 26 years old. He happened upon her on the street early in the morning. She was walking home from a graduation party. He was not associated with this murder for 15 years. His DNA had not shown up for any other rapes. He was a murderer just not an active rapist. You will read about several men who raped once or twice because they just happen on a victim. These are the lazy rapists the passive hunter or scavenger if you will. This rapist does not have the imagination for the hunt. Rape is like any other profession some men are excellent at it whereas others are poor craftsman. They are just like plumbers. Some men are excellent plumbers whereas other men are poor plumbers. They all have the desire to be a plumber and they all passed the course to be a plumber but their individuality differentiates their talent. There are other rapists who rape for the thrill of it. These are the men who rape and tell their victim that they will return the next year to do it all over again (Florida – Georgia). They like to climb through the windows or swing from the balcony to prove to the victim and to law enforcement that they cannot be stopped.

Other thrill rapists like to rape and murder their victim in their bed while there are other people in the home proving their prowess. Remember any male that you approach has a 100% chance of being a rapist. A rapist does not wear his profession on his face just like a plumber. You cannot tell a plumber just by looking at him and you cannot tell a rapist by looking at him. Mr. Jerry Wayne Nobles, 53, a grandfather, was sentenced March 13, 2000 to two consecutive life sentences plus 10 years. He will not be eligible for parole until he's 118. He was convicted of assaulting his 4 year old grand child. He was a grandfather that was a rapist. July 13, 1997 a woman of the night entered a Louisiana Orleans Parish police station and told authority that she had been raped twice that night by two different people on two occasions and both assailants were police officer (bullies in uniforms) who told her they would arrest her if she resisted. Ms. Yosheka Butler gave the police two condoms filled with DNA as proof of the attacks. She said she wanted her story publicized to prevent similar attacks by police officers. Police officers should pay just like everyone else. She said the attacks she endured are common among prostitutes. Ms. Butler said, "They've been doing that sort of thing for the longest time. Everybody's scared to come forward, but not me. Something's got to be done." She left the state after making the charges. She was frightened. So you see police officers can also be rapists. Read articles, Ex-cop faces rape charge, prostitute says it can't go on , Times-Picayune, The (New Orleans, LA), July 14, 1997, Author: Michael Perlstein Staff writer Ex-deputy gets probation, fine for sex with inmate, Times-Picayune, The (New Orleans, LA), July 31, 1999, Author: Rhonda Bell Staff Writer

Rape is the largest single most crime reported in the United States and it is predominantly committed against one gender, women. Remember in Chapter Three we estimated that the number of rapists at large in this country was approximately 1,539,614 men. From 1958 to 2006 2,859,434 women were reported raped in this country. During this same period of time 1,918,574 men were arrested for the offense of rape leaving 1,539,614 rapists at large. Please do not think a rapist stops being a rapist because he gets old. He is still a rapist. The figure does not include the number of rapists immigrating to this country or crossing our borders as tourists each year. Yes there are men entering this country requesting immigration status and they are rapist. And yes there are men entering this country as tourists that are rapist. I know you did not think all of the western rapists went to the Far East. There are men looking for blonde haired and blue eyed women to terrorize. If we add in the number of women who were assaulted by men attempting to rape them (598,574), we have between 1,539,614 to 2,138,368 rapists at large in this country. Yes, there are more than a million rapists in this country. Take the female population and divide that population by 1,539,614 to 2,138,368 and that will give you the number of rapists per woman in this country. This figure represents the number of fathers, brothers, uncles, stepfathers, cousins, stepbrothers, stepsons, grandfathers and boyfriend and ex-boyfriends and suitors that are rapists. That is correct the man you are sleeping with can be a practicing rapist. Nothing precludes a man from being a rapist especially not age. We have rapists at both ends of the age spectrum (10 to 70). Do not sit there and tell yourself that what was just said is not true. It is true. The man you just finished having sex with can be a rapist. Did you notice the number of men in Chapter Six that had girlfriends? When Michael Ross was capture at his home, his girlfriend was visiting him. When William Taylor was arrested in 1981 for killing Donna Williams, Sharon Peterson, and an unnamed woman, he was living with his girlfriend. The couple had just moved into the area. Police believe Mr. Mr. James Randall, 41, of Florida murdered approximately six women in the home he shared with his girlfriend. The police know he murdered in his home they just do not know the exact number of women murdered in his home. Maury Travis murdered in his home. There were pictures of some of the murders. He had a girlfriend who visited him often in his home. She just did not visit the basement where he did his killing. Remember a girlfriend makes a man appear normal. People believe that a rapist does not want to have normal sex with a woman or that a rapist cannot have normal sex with a woman. This level of deception from both sides is the reason why most women cannot accept that their boyfriend is a rapist when he is caught and tried. The women want to say their boyfriend is the gentlest creature in the world; when all the time he has been hunting women with astounding success. There is not one woman in the world who wants to believe she had normal sex with a man that is a rapist. If I am making you vomit so be it. It is better to have an upset stomach than find out that you are married to a man like Mr. Thomas J. McCarthy, or John Eric Armstrong. Yes rapists are hiding as married men. Yes the man you just served chicken to is a rapist (Altemio C. Sanchez, 48). Rapists do not live in some far off land lurking in the darkness they are sitting on your porch talking to your children (Robert Lee Yates). There are cousins who rape together. Cousins, Aaron Mitchell, 23, and Warren Mitchell, 24 convicted of murdering Mrs. Doris Baker, 78. Cousins, Jamie Rodriguez Jr., 21, and Agustin Pena, 15, convicted of murdering Stephanie Dubay, 14. Cousins, Victor Lamar Waterford, 16; Alec Vernal Waterford, 19; and Willie Labron Hill, 19, convicted in the murder of Cynthia Mills, 23. Imagine having that much evilness in a family. Two cousins murdered Karen King, a college student in Michigan. Angelo Buono and Kenneth Bianchi are not the only cousins who raped and murdered together

There are brothers (Brothers, Andrew and Tommy Kokoraleis, of Illinois; Andrew Kokoraleis was executed on March 17, 1999.) who rape together and there are childhood friends (Charles MacKay and Robert Cooper) that rape together. Demario Atwater, 23, and Laurence Lovette, were friends who murdered together. They shot student Eva Carson to death for a few dollars. They were caught within days of the shooting. Kayson Pearson and Troy Hendrix were two friends convicted in the rape and murder of college student, Romona Moore, 21. Two friends, Todd Hoke and Nicolas Castillo, both 16 are now in prison after being convicted of the viscous murder of Amber Leann Hess, 17, of Arizona. She was pregnant when she was beaten strangled then stabbed to death. Todd Hoke and Nicolas Castillo killed Amber Hess because they did not like her.

Two of the most notorious brothers that hunted together were the Cook brothers of Ohio. Mr. Nathaniel Cook 42 and Anthony Cook 49 of Ohio together murdered nine people. By the way these men are eligible for parole. There are also business partners who are charged with sexual offenses. August 5, 1999 Lorenzo Feal, 39, of Yorba Linda, and his friend, Amir Kahajavirad, 34, of Long Beach, were charged with poisoning by using the drug gamma-hydroxybutyrate, or GHB -- and kidnapping for the purpose of sexual assault and four various sexual assault charges, all involving a drugged and unconscious victim. GHB is a powerful synthetic central nervous system depressant. February 7, 2000 Lorenzo Feal was convicted of sexually assaulting a drugged and unconscious person. He was sentenced March 27, 2000 to 11 years in prison. Did he just happen to have GHB available? This was a stupid crime. Mr. Feal was earning $20,000 per month. He threw this all away because of his impish attitude. He had to see what it felt like to have sex with an unconscious woman besides no one would know. He could beat the system. All he had to do is use his magic potion on any woman he met. GHB was a gold mine. What a stroke of luck. There would not be a woman on the planet that he could not have. What a rush. Why not purchase a woman? It would have been cheaper he could have saved the last 11 years of his life. This was the first case in California in which prosecutors were able to provide scientific evidence involving the use of gamma-hydroxybutyrate, or GHB. We do not know disposition of Mr. Amir Kahajavirad's case because his role was reduced. We do not know if he was convicted along with Mr. Feal. The law does not think it is so funny to drug and rape a woman. The victim was sodomized. Some rapists think if the woman is not awake how can she tell authorities what happen to her? You can find rape among any human condition in the world. There are dishwashers who are rapists. There are gardeners who are rapists and there are cable installers (Luis Jeovanny Saravia, 31, California) (Luis Saravia, 32, in our country illegally) who are rapists and there are immigrants who are rapists, (Ingmar Guandique, 27 California). Just remember every rapist is a man. Therefore every man can be a rapist. Nothing precludes this behavior. Nothing! No occupation precludes a man from being a rapist. A rapist can be a doctor, lawyer or Indian chief. No hair color precludes a man from being a rapist this means the blonde haired blue eyed man at the office you have been watching can be a rapist. No pants size, no shoe size or age precludes a man from being a rapist. Larry Donnel Green was convicted in 1997 of murdering three women in Newport News, Virginia. The first woman he murdered he had known as a teenager. He was her sister's ex-boyfriend. He was related to the second woman he murdered and he was an acquaintance of the third woman he murdered.

And most of all marriage does not preclude a man from being a rapist in fact many rapist use marriage as a camouflage. Lee Roy Martin, 31, was married when he murdered four women in South Carolina. Robert Hansen was married when he killed a number of women in Alaska. Robert Lee Yates was married when he killed countless women in Washington. Jeffery Gordon was married he killed two women in Michigan. He raped in Florida. John Eric Armstrong was married when he murdered five women in Michigan. Derrick Todd Lee, 34, was married when he murdered six women in Louisiana. Paul Durosseau, 32, was married when he murdered five women in Florida and one woman in Georgia. Donald Wilcox was a father of three when he murdered a number of women. Mr. Goodreau was married and a social security worker when he murdered two women in Michigan. William Floyd Zamastil, 51, was married when he killed in Wisconsin and California. Victor Malone was married and a social worker when he murdered four women in Michigan. Many of these men were also fathers. Any male that you approach has a 100% chance of being a rapist. A rapist does not wear his profession on his face. Who would suspect a father of six of being a rapist and a murderer? No one! As you read you will learn there have been lots of men who have raped and murdered women who are fathers and some were fathers of six children. The fact that the murderer(s) of Diane Carter, 30, Cecilia Jacobs, Lois Johnson, 31, Arlette McQueen, 21, Patricia Real, 26, Delores Willis, 23, and Paulette Woodward, 19 of Detroit, Michigan in the 1980's have not been apprehended lends credence to the possibility that the man you are sitting next to is a rapist and a murderer. The fact that the murderer of Tanya L. Miller, 19, Deborah L. Harris, 31, Sheila Farrior, 37, Jessica Payne, Florence McCormick, Joyce Ann Mims and Quithreaun Stokes of Milwaukee, Wisconsin has been genetically identified is proof that a rapist is quietly living among us.

When Karl Lee Myers was arrested in Oklahoma August 1996 for the deaths of Mrs. Michelle Marzano, 29, and Shawn Marie Williams, 22, two women spoke out against his guilt. Jennifer Simmons said the man who was dating her mother adored her four year old daughter and was a nice man. "He loves my daughter to death. He brings her things and is very affectionate to her." Her daughter called him "her buddy" he is kind and generous to me and my mother. His sister, Hazel Robitaille, said it, was hard believing her brother was the serial killer he was being made out to be. "He's lost his job. He's going to lose what he's worked hard for." She said personally I don't think so when asked did she believe her brother killed Shawn Williams and Mrs. Marzano. She said her brother liked being around people and was affectionate. Karl Myers sister said, "They're going to have to go a long way to prove it to me. And this DNA -- I'm not impressed with it." During Mr. Myer's trial the DNA expert testified that the likelihood that the semen sample found in Cindy Michelle Marzano came from any other than Karl Lee Myers was 1 in 14 million. Karl Lee Myers married May 2, 1986 his wife died October 1995 approximately 10 years later of cancer. This was his second marriage he married December 1964 at the age of 16. Karl Lee Myers socialized well with women and married two of them but after his conviction there was no doubt he was a rapist and a murderer of women. When Mr. Robert Lee Drown, 27, was arrested for the murders of Jennifer Ison, 31, RN and her daughters, Shannah Ison, 10, and Marissa Ison, 3, Jackie Bare said, she knew Mr. Drown's wife, "I never saw (Ison) with him. If he had a relationship with this woman, I didn't know anything about it, but after the fact -- the fire -- I heard some people at the Bull say he had gone out with her." Ms. Bare said she was surprised when she heard Drown was a sex offender and charged with murder. "I can't find it in my heart to think he'd do something like that. "He doesn't seem to be that type of guy." Mr. Drown volunteered to be a stripper at her daughter's bachelorette party. "It really bothers me now," she said. "I was with him for 2 1/2 hours, all my friends and all my family were around him -- and he was as good as gold to them." One characteristic of sexual offenders is they befriend a woman to gain access to their children. Women often see murder "As something you read about happening somewhere else." When Sean Patrick Goble was arrested in 1995 Lisa Hill said, "Whenever he was off the road, he would come to my house. Park that truck right up in front. He was gentle. He was like a big bear. If I was crying, he was right there holding me. He didn't mistreat anybody." Ms. Hill's sister, Wanda Moore, said, "He's called me many times out on the road and stuff crying. "Sometimes he'd say it was his grandma that was sick. Other times he wouldn't say why he was upset. Other times he'd say something wasn't right and he just wanted to talk." This is the same man who put a woman's head between his legs and squeezed her to death. Mr. Goble gave both sisters rings and clothing. These items were seized by the police believing Mr. Goble took these items as souvenirs. It is common knowledge that a career rapist will give their friends or girlfriend the victim's clothing or jewelry so he can remember the killing experience whenever the jewelry or clothing is worn. The two women had known Sean Patrick Goble for ten months. He was convicted of several murders.

There was a young girl walking down the street in Detroit, Michigan about 15 years ago and a young man was standing on the street watching her walk. He thought it would be funny to drag her into a vacant house and rape her. As she approached him this is just what he did. According to his police record he had never been charged with rape but when the young woman left the abandon house crying he was then labeled rapist. In his mind he was not a rapist he was just forcing a woman to have sex with him and why not. He reasoned she probably had sex before so why not with him. He knew the young woman and he wanted sex so why not drag her into an abandon house and force her to have sex. It was not like she could do anything about it. He had been brutalizing young girls for a long time concealing his behavior from his mother. He finally got up enough nerve to go further and attack a woman on the street. He was convicted and now he is labeled a rapist. I do not know how much time he was sentenced to in prison. The two main points is he is now labeled a rapist and he thought raping his victim was funny. There was a man who lived next to the abandoned house. He was outside barbecuing and saw the altercation. He said he just thought the pair were wrestling and playing. When the young girl emerged from the building crying he realized that the pair was not playing he had witnessed the beginning of a rape.

Some men think rape is funny, getting a woman drunk and forcing her to have sex is a sport. One comedian in the 1980's said of women who were raped it is not like they haven't done it before. The sport is practiced in high school aboard school busses and then perfected in college. This is why many of your top executives of the Fortune 500 companies in this country can be a rapist. Do you think men stop raping after they graduate from college? Why do you think this country have so many sexual harassment suit associated with the work place. How many police detectives do you think have associated sexual harassment complaints with rapes that occurred on college campuses years ago? What do these men do with the proclivity they developed in college walk away and be happy with the little missus they married? Please! Men know rape is fun and profitable this is why so many men commit acts of rape whenever they can. Men bring women to this country from Haiti, Russian, China, the Baltic etc. and sell their bodies to the highest bidder. The women who are sold are being raped and the men who purchase their service are rapists and these men are your father, brother, uncle, cousins, grandfathers and sons. The men believe woman do not suffer any injury it is not like she had not done it with a man before. The biggest lie told in America by a man is that he has never had to buy it. The next time you look at your brother ask yourself how many women has he purchased in his life time when he wanted sex then you will see why it translate that all rapists are men and that it is a 100% possibility that any man you meet is a rapist. At least ten of the women mentioned in this book left the bar with the man who later killed them. The women assumed he was just a regular Joe. Some of the women left the bar just before the men who murdered them. See the Waterford cousins. The bar is an excellent site to locate victims. In 1996 Michael Pat Lucero, 33, of Albuquerque, New Mexico was taken out to a field robbed then beaten to death by two men who befriended him in a bar. William Bradford Fischer, 22, and Adam Walter Sadlowski, 18, were charged with murder. Were these two men not monsters? Realize this fact you can meet anything in a bar. Women must always be alert. You are never alone. Just because you went to the club alone and you are leaving the bar alone does not mean you are not under observation. You must remember Mr. Arthur Bomar is watching. Mr. Arthur Bomar was in the night club watching you waiting for you to leave so he could follow you bump your car and causing you to exit your car then abduct you from the road. It is the rapist intention to catch you unaware and alone. Foil his plans by being alert and aware that Arthur Bomar, 31, is always watching. The women in this country are now entering in a period of our history where we must be assertive regarding our safety. Too much emphasis is placed on the phrase domestic violence. What we should be interested in is the phrase violence against women. Women do not only encounter violence in the home women encounter violence everywhere under all conditions even when they are unconscious in a hospital. Women encounter violence on dates, women encounter violence in the work place, women encounter violence if women are homeless, women encounter violence while working the street both from their johns and police officers. The phrase violence against women encompasses the entire range of violence associated with the female gender whereas the phrase domestic violence is limited to intimate relationships.

Women are assaulted on the street by strangers
Women are assaulted in their homes by strangers

Women are assaulted on the street by acquaintances
Women are assaulted in their homes by acquaintances

Women are assaulted on the street by a family member
Women are assaulted in their homes by a family member

Do you see now why it makes no sense for emphasis to be place on domestic violence? We need to fight the entire range of violent acts against women. These murderers are not changing our society for the better. The murderers are creating a new class of people, the motherless child.

Do not take any one to a dope house in exchange for that person giving you some dope. Do not associate with any dope dealers. Do not visit dope houses. If your spouse is using drugs leave him or her and do not give your spouse or ex-boyfriend your new address. Do not associate with any one participating in any illegal activities. Do not advise your daughter to stay in an abusive marriage for the sake of the children.

Do not associate with any one cheating on their spouse. Do not give an alibi for a cheating spouse. Do not commit adultery because you may cause the murder of your spouse.

Do not steal from work. Keep your car in good repair. You drive the new car let your husband drive the old car. Know where all of the police stations are in the area and where the police hang out. And please remember two things above all else - Nothing precludes a man from being a rapist. Any male that you approach has a 100% chance of being a rapist. May 10, 2003 The Watertown Daily Times reported that Mr. Eric Fuller of Keeseville was sentenced to the maximum sentence (32 years in prison) after being convicted of 12 felony counts including first-degree rape and endangering the welfare of a child. Mr. Fuller was found guilty of giving alcohol to his teenage daughter and her three girlfriends. He raped a 16 year old after she passed out. Judge Andrew Halloran said at sentencing, "What you did to these four girls is just absolutely despicable." Eric Fuller's daughter left the state. Brooks Bellay, 14, of Florida raped and murdered Angel Ann Halstead, 4, August 1979 while she was following her kitten. He was sentenced to life in prison. He is scheduled for parole December 2005. Who would think a 14 year old was walking the neighborhood looking for a victim? A rapist does not wear his profession on his face nor is rape age specific. Secondly, you are always under observation. Do not think because you weight 200 pounds, or walk with a cane, or have short hair and zero sex appeal no one is watching you. You are always under observation and you are as much a target as any woman who is a perfect size ten. Mary Jane Westine, 51, a mentally retarded woman, was raped and murdered in her Lake Worth, Florida apartment in 1985. Her neighbor, Michael Thomas White Jr. 23, said he beat her to death with a wrench. Ms. Westine just started a job at a special IBM-sponsored training program in Boca Raton. The job was a turning point in her life. This was the first time she was deemed able to work outside a rehabilitation center. Mr. White was married.

When you look into the face of a man you must understand you do not know who he is. You are not privy to his thoughts. You have no idea of his experiences. You are not with him every hour of the day. You do not know how much pornography he watches on television or his choice of magazines. You do not know his fantasies. You do not know that he has hundreds of panties hiding in the garage that he revisits every weekend. You cannot associate his education to his proclivity to murder not can you associated his patriotism to his desire to murder

Mr. Kenyon Battles Tolerton was considered a very smart man. He was a computer programmer yet he during his lifetime authorities convicted him of two murders. The first known murder he committed was in 1980 when he murdered Donna Waugh in Englewood.

The second murder he was accused of was the murder of Cissy Pamela Foster age 14. Cissy Foster lived in Colorado. Her body was found in a field September 1993. Cissy Foster was stabbed 13 times. Mr. Tolerton, 38, was not indicted for this murder until 1994. He was then three years out of prison for the murder of Ms. Waugh. It is apparent Mr. Tolerton had no desire to stop abusing women. What he was trying to do was to become proficient at murder so he could continue to kill well into his life like Messieurs Timothy Krajcir, suspect Anthony Sowell, of Ohio, suspect John Floyd Thomas, of California, suspect Lonnie Franklin, of California, Lorenzo Gilyard (53) of Missouri and suspect Walter E. Ellis (49) of Wisconsin. Mr. Krajcir killed in four states, Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Pennsylvania for a number of years. He left and reentered these states at will. Mr. Lorenzo Gilyard was a suspect in the murder of 13 women from April 17, 1977 to April 11, 1993. He was convicted of murdering six women based on conclusive DNA evidence. Lorenzo Gilyard was Mr. Respectability because he was employed and married. Walter E. Ellis is accused of murdering 9 women over a period of 21 years, 1986 to 2007. His trial is pending 2011. These men as well as Mr. Thomas Mr. Franklin avoid detection for a number of years. There are others you will read about. Neither education nor patriotism precludes a man from attacking women.

This is a synopsis of Mr. Tolerton history he abducted a woman from the parking lot of an area mall (she survived), he kidnapped and murdered Ms. Waugh in 1980 and was convicted in 1981. He was released from prison in 1990. He served ten year in prison for taking a woman's life. What made the state think he was rehabilitated. He was an abuser of women. We know he killed again in 1993. Are we to believe he did nothing between 1990 and 1993? Could this unknown activity not explain some of the bodies found along our highways? After Mr. Tolerton's first act of violence against a woman he should have be incarcerated indefinitely. Getting caught the first time taught him to try harder not to leave a witness. He was a convicted felon when he was arrested July 28, 1980 for the murder of Donna Waugh in Englewood. After murdering a child Mr. Tolerton is finally sentenced to life without parole plus 48 years after pleading guilty in that murder. DNA linked him to the murder of Crissy Foster.

Anthony Sowell, a Marine veteran, living in Ohio is accused of murdering 11 women, Crystal Dozier, 38, Tishana Culver, 31, Leshanda Long, 25, Michelle Mason, 45, Tonia Carmichael, 52, Nancy Cobbs, 43, Amelda Hunter, 47, Telacia Fortson, 31, Janice Webb, 49, Kim Yvette Smith, 44 and Diane Turner, 38. All of the women are mothers. Ms. Crystal Dozier was the mother of seven children. She shared a birthday with her mother, Florence Bray. A woman complained to the police that Mr. Sowell attack her in April 2009. This investigation led to the discovery of the bodies and his subsequent arrest. It is always a woman who believes she is entitled to police protection that leads police to multiple murderers (Washington, Florida, Michigan). Anthony Sowell has already pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity. His murder trial is pending. He has no other defense since some of the bodies of his victims were found in his home. His defense attorney knows he cannot stand up in court and tell the jury Mr. Sowell did not know the bodies were in his house. Mr. Sowell spent eight years in the Marines. We wonder how many bodies Anthony Sowell left behind in North Carolina, California or Okinawa. He was proficient at killing. It is hard to believe he waited until May 2007 when he was 48 years old to begin killing. He is accused of murdering one woman in 2007, four women in 2008 and six women in 2009.

We do know bodies are left behind by soldiers leaving the corp. Mr. Urdiales left bodies behind in California. A veteran returning to Louisiana left a body behind in California. She was a mother of four children. A CIS agent pursued the Louisiana veteran until his arrest several years later.

Anthony Sowell was a convicted felon. He served 15 years in prison after pleading guilty to an attempted rape in 1989. We do not know his sentence but he was paroled in 2005. He killed in 2007. He was around 31 years old in 1990 when he entered prison. He spent 8 years in the service. So did he become violent toward women between the ages of 26 to 31? Was the 1989 rape victim his first victim causing him to leave prison determined not to return? He lived with a woman from 2007 to 2009 during the time he was murdering his victims. Could this living arrangement not have been his camouflage? I am living with a woman so no one should or will suspect me. Why does he have to be crazy? The woman he was living with said he appeared normal. Maybe Mr. Sowell was in and out crazy one day Dr. Jekyll and the next day Mr. Hyde. His defense attorney will have to find a psychiatrist who can explain this particular brand of madness and how it escaped the woman who was living with Mr. Sowell. And explain how Mr. Sowell did not deliberately (premeditation) use his girlfriend as camouflage to avoid detection. Mr. Sowell told his last victim that "You just another crack (whore) from the street, no one will know if you missing." Now who is crazy Mr. Sowell or the jury if they believe him crazy when he is tried? Is that statement not cognizant and presence of mind? Mr. Kenyon Tolerton was convicted of an assault and spent time in prison. After he was released from prison he killed Donna Waugh - No Witnesses. He did not bother with a girlfriend.

Above we said that neither education nor patriotism precludes a man from being a rapist now we say neither does age or a uniform preclude a man from being a rapist. Take a look at the chart below for Delinquency Arrests. The chart is a wake up call that we do have juvenile rapists. Many times these young rapists act in packs attack females aboard school buses or in locker rooms or unoccupied classrooms in school buildings. This is why parents should be mindful when they allow their children to board a school bus. See the January 31, 2007 article News Digest Country Club Hills Suit says boy molested... in the Daily South town Chicago, Illinois. School buses are not safe. School systems should not rely upon the bus driver to be all knowing and a safe driver at the same time. A second adult should be aboard all school buses to maintain order. Money should not be a consideration to the safety of children. Hundreds of rapes have occurred aboard school buses where other students cheered the rapists. The other students thought the act was funny. Imagine rearing a child and he or she thinks rape is funny. Their egos were such that cheering a rapist made them feel powerful one of the strong. Their self-esteem had to be in the toilet. Do not be shocked. When bullying is allowed in school what do you expect. Bullying and the constant need for power is a precursor of rape regardless of age.

In 2019 Lorenzo London, a juvenile rapist, will be released from a Minnesota prison. He will be 29 years old young enough to rape again. He raped a woman when he was 17 years old. The rape began as a robbery. January 31, 2007 Mr. London followed a woman as she departed a bus. He robbed her then he forced her into an alley where he raped her. His image was caught on camera. Hundreds of people phoned the police when his photo was released to the media. The judge accepted the prosecutor's recommendation that Lorenzo London be tried as an adult. Mr. London pled guilty June 2007 to the charge of rape rather than face defending against the charges of rape, kidnapping and aggravated robbery. How much do you want to bet that we shall be hearing more from Mr. London? Does any one believe he will be rehabilitated in prison? Mr. London's victim is listed in the stats below.

Delinquency cases are all cases of youth referred to a juvenile court for violation of a law or ordinance or for seriously "antisocial" conduct. Several types of facilities are available for those adjudicated delinquents, ranging from the short term physically unrestricted environment to the long term very restrictive atmosphere.

In one of these facilities Mr. Christopher Righetti learned if he murdered his next victim he could avoid prison. The jurisdiction of the above cases was juvenile court.

Juvenile Arrests

For statistical purposes, the FBI and most states classify as juvenile offenders persons under the age of 18 years who have committed a crime or crimes. The forcible rape figures

There is no age to age mapping in the relationship between juvenile offenders and their victims. The victim of a juvenile offender can be a teenager or an adult female. In other words male teenagers rape females from ages 8 to 80. If they cannot perform the act physically they use various implements.

There are associated offenses where the offender's main goal is robbery later after feeling a surge of power he decides to rape and murder no one is watching.

The above data does not include juveniles referred to juvenile court where the court has the option of releasing the offender by the age of 18 or 21 or placing the offender on probation. Jurisdiction for these cases is the district court or higher.

The next chart gives us a few of the age of our juvenile offender. Now you see why we say a rapist can be any where from age 10 to 70.

Imagine in this country we have teenagers who are rapist and many of the rapes take place on school buses. Data compiled from Sourcebook of Criminal Justice Statistics Table 4.7 by offense charged and age Information based on the number of reporting agencies at the time the report was assembled.

Bold juvenile arrests

We have 7, 648 individuals under the age of 18 who are accused murderers and we have 23,029 individuals under the age of 18 who are accused rapists in one decade. Just as a point of reference if we consider 2000 to be a typical decade we have approximately 33,743 violent offenders under the age of 18 being produce in our country every decade. If we continue to consider 2000 as a typical decade, we can extrapolate that from 1950 to 2010, six decades, this country has produced approximately 50,472 murderers and 202,458 rapists under the age of 18. You can test our thinking by calculating the totals for arrests made for murder and total arrests made for forcible rape from 1990 to 1999. Please note we are only looking at the figures for individuals under the age of 18. Individuals between the ages of 10 and 17 have approximately 60 years of continued activity unless they are permanently stopped. Now let us go back. Look at the 18 year and older total. That figure is 71, 122. Seventy one thousands one hundred and twenty two people were arrested for the charge of murder. One hundred twenty two thousands seven hundred and forty one males (122,741) were arrested for the charge of rape. Now if we extrapolate these figures for the past six decades this country has produced 469,404 possible murderers and 810,090 possible rapists all over the age of 18. Do you see now why having a million rapists at large in this country is not an exaggerated figure? We use the word possible because these figures are based on the number of arrests made for the charge of murder and or forcible rape. The individuals still must be tried for the charges. Now look at the total number of suspected murderers and the suspected rapists over the age of 18 arrested for the 2000 decade. If we use these figure we see that in six decades this country has produced approximately 519,882 murderers and approximately 960,762 rapists. What is startling about theses figures or better still what is frightening about these figures is that most of these individuals (1,480,644) are still alive and at least 960,762 are a direct threat to women. Do you see now why you should act to better address bullying in schools and the problems in our judicial system (sentencing and parole), our foster care system and our way of life? If you question the figures calculate the number of people arrested for the charge of murder and forcible rape for the 1980 and 1990 decade. Find the average of the two decades then use this average to calculate possible murderers and rapists for six decades then compare with our calculations based on the 2000 decade. We considered 10% of the total for the missing year 2000. Our percentage of error is not great. The next time you look in a man's face you will realize how great the possibility is that you are looking into the face of a rapist because the number of rapists in the country is growing and by definition all rapists are men. Not all men are rapists but we know that all rapists are men unsettlingly to say the least.

August 19, 2009 the state of Florida executed John Richard Marek for the June 17, 1983 rape and murder of Mrs. Adela Marie Simmons, 46. He murdered Mrs. Simmons June 17, 1983 when he was 21 years old. He was sentenced to death July 3, 1984 at the age of 22. He was executed August 2009 at the age of 47. He sat on death row for 25 years waiting to die. Any time you look into the face of a man you must realize you are looking into the face of a rapist. Mrs. Simmons and a friend were vacationing in Florida when their car broke down. Ms. Simmons elected to go with two men who stopped their truck offering help to the women. Supposedly the two men were to take her to a place where she could call for help. The best that can be said of Mrs. Simmons' death is she was brutalized. She eventually strangled to death with a bandana. From her picture she appeared to be a refined looking woman. She was a mother. Mr. Marek's accomplice, Raymond Wigley, was murdered in prison in 2000. Any time you look into the face of a man you must realize you are looking into the face of a rapist. I do not care if the man is White; the young and White kill as often and with as much frequency as the old and Black. Nothing precludes a man from being a rapist. Nothing! Any time you look into the face of a man you must realize you are looking into the face of a rapist. This is a life saving assumption. To think counter to this assumption is to put your life in that man's hands. Accepting this fact may save your life. As he lay dying Mr. Marek said, "Jesus, remembers the sinners." The death of Adela Marie Simmons was a horrendous murder that shocked even the most sensible. It was also a murder that was remembered. Andrei Trach, the son of Simmons' friend Jean Trach, attended the execution with his sister, Tanya Trach. They said, "The waiting had gone on long enough. That animal was afforded the time to say goodbye to the ones he loved and make peace with his maker. "Ms. Adela Simmons, the victim, was afforded no such luxury." The problem with Mr. Marek is he did not realize he was different than other men. He thought he was normal. He thought a man should take advantage of the vulnerable and helpless in society. If you see someone that needs help take advantage of them. Taking advantage of people is smart. He thought it would be easy to take a life. What he did not understand is his action caused him to take his own life. He did not know he was descending into hell.

February 2010 Chickasaw, Alabama Police Officer Bob Ingle was convicted by a jury of rape, sodomy and sex abuse. Bob Ingle was convicted of raping his step-daughter, Rebecca McEvoy. It only took the jury a few hours to come back with the guilty verdict. Before sentencing he committed suicide.

June 2, 2010 New York Police Officer Wilfredo Rosario, 42, a married father of five, was convicted of sexually abusing two women. In January he was convicted of misconduct for telling a teenager he'd tear up a ticket if she did him a sexual favor. He is scheduled to be tried on a charge of raping a woman who had come to a police station looking for information on children's programs

Officer Jeffrey Thorn, 26, was fired June 29, 2010 for sexually assaulting a female Thursday, June 24, 2010. Officer Thorn allegedly picked the woman up, drove her to an isolated area and demanded she perform certain sex acts or she would be taken to jail. The woman refused several times. The conversation between the officer and the woman was recorded on the cruiser's audio recording system. Remember what we said about bullies and the need for power. A police sergeant and supervisor working in the area noticed Officer Thorn's police cruiser was idled for quite a while and went and investigated. When the police sergeant went to investigate why the patrol car was sitting for so long he probably saved that woman's life. Officer Jeffrey Thorn faces aggravated sexual assault charges. After Officer Thorn's arrest Assistant Chief Floyd Simpson, commander of the patrol bureau, said, "Dallas police officers will respect the rights of our citizens. Anything, in my opinion, less than that is unacceptable." We have a question if convicted will Officer Jeffrey Thorn be required to register as a sex offender.

June 29, 2010 Mesa Arizona Police Officer Justin Bowman, 31, was sentenced to 682 years in prison after being convicted on 32 counts, including child molestation, sexual conduct with a minor, sexual exploitation of a minor, public sexual indecency, and furnishing harmful items to a minor. August 2009 Thomas Orth, 40, a Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority officer, was convicted of rape of a child with force. He was accused of raping a 15 year old July 2006. He was indicted in 2008 and convicted August 3, 2009. Officer Orth taught a patrol-procedures course for four years at the MBTA Transit Police Academy in Quincy. This is the same academy where the FBI was investigating allegations that supervisors coerced sex from female cadets. Remember what we said about power and bullies and the face of a rapist. If guilty these supervisors would not have you believe they were rapists. When you force sex or purchase sex you are a rapist. A woman being sold for sex has no control over her circumstances. She has to do as she is told therefore when a man pays to have sex with a Russian woman he is a rapist. Only the dollar he spends makes him believe he has struck a bargain with his victim.

Brosky then assaulted the girl and released the couple. He is scheduled to stand trial for molesting another teenage girl and threatening to arrest her if she didn't do certain favors for him. There is nothing like power.

Louisiana Police Officer Len Davis, 31, is again to be sentenced to death in ordering the murder of witness, Kim Groves October 13, 1994. A federal prosecutor said Officer Davis was acting under the color of law when he had Kim Groves murdered. Ms. Kim Groves, 32, worked as a security guard. She was a mother of four. She thought it was wrong for a police officer to beat a person so she agreed to testify against Officer Davis. Officer Davis decided he had the power to do away with Ms. Groves. Officer Davis did what the prosecutor said he did and two juries believed the charges against him. The shooter was 28 year old Paul Cool Hardy. Mr. Hardy escaped the death penalty the second time around.

He was sentenced to 37.5 to 75 years in prison. Notice the sentence all rapists should be sentenced this harshly. Women should not be worried that rapists will be released from prison in 5 to 7 years. Rapists should be too old to walk when they are paroled from prison.

February 13, 2001 Berkley, Michigan Police Officer Brent A. Smith, 27, was charged with three counts of second-degree criminal sexual conduct for assaulting an 18 year old woman in the back of his patrol car December 23, 2000 in the parking lot of a popular local bar and restaurant. Ms. Medlin disappeared while driving home from her waitress job in Charlotte in the early morning hours of March 29, 1997. Officer Griffin persisted in his denial until 2001 when he admitted he murdered Kim Medlin. Kim Medlin was beaten choked with a flashlight and stomped in the back. She was strangled and her neck was broken. Kim Medlin is not the only woman murdered by a patrolman after her car was stopped for a fake traffic violation.

December 2, 2009 Alexander Officer Jeffrey Garica was sentenced to 100 years raping and sexually abusing three children in the same family. If you do not read any other article suggested please read Garcia guilty of child rape, get 100 years, Thursday, December 3, 2009 Benton Inquirer Benton Arkansas. Officer Garcia behavior is the reason why single women should never bring an non related male into their home when there are vulnerable children (ages 0 to 18) present. In this case it believed that the mother knew her children were being raped and she did nothing. Why is she not in prison serving time right along with Officer Garcia? Officer Jeffrey Garica probably thought since he was helping to support the children he they should pay him in kind. Please take note of all the police officers that abuse children. This is not a coincidence. When a man abuses a child he derives the greatest feeling of power. This is why we say every time you look in the face of a man you maybe looking into the face of a rapist all he needs is an opportunity. We did not write about all the cases we have regarding police officers abusing their power and we did not include cases where the wives, ex wives, girlfriends and ex-girlfriends were murdered by the police officer. Do not bring a rapist into your home to visit with your children

Chapter 9

They Were Just Getting Started

Does any of this behavior remain you of your son? It is somebody's son that is raping and murdering women in this country why could it not be your son.

Benny Mora Jr., 15 and Mister Saunders, 13

Melissa Albert lived in Albuquerque, New Mexico. She decided to move January 8, 2002 after her apartment had been broken into. During the moved she was raped and stabbed to death. Her alleged assailant's were teenagers. Murderer Status: Mister Saunders, 13, and Benny Mora Jr., 15, were charged with murder. Mister Saunders was her neighbor. In eight years they maybe out of juvenile detention ready to rape again. Do you think it is possible for rehabilitation for minds that conceive rape and murder?

Shall they be given a second chance to rape and murder?

Thomas Dee Huskey, 32, Tennessee 1991 - 1992

Susan E. Stone, 30 (LON)
Darlene Smith, 22

Patricia Rose Anderson, 32 (LON)
Patricia Johnson, 31 (LON)

In the fall of 1992 the police in Knox County had a series of rapes and murders to solve. Four women reported to them of being raped in 1991 and 1992 and the bodies of four women were found from October 20, 1992 to October 27, 1992. A 32 year old woman was raped October 5, 1992. Another woman was raped July 18, 1992. Their assailant was armed. He raped two women at the zoo and two women in the Caban Lane woods. One of the women said he posed as a nice guy offering her a ride later only to take her into the woods and raped her. The bodies found in the area were Susan E. Stone, Darlene Smith, Patricia Rose Anderson, and Patricia Johnson. They were murdered in this order. Three of the women were strangled to death. One woman died of a seizure. Her family said she suffered seizures whenever she was frightened. Her assailant described for the police the seizure just before she died. The body of Patricia Anderson was found October 20, 1992. The body of Darlene Smith was found October 26, 1992 along with the body of Patricia Johnson. The skeletal remains of Susan Stone were found October 30, 1992. The police arrested Thomas Dee Huskey age 32 October 21, 1992. He was an unemployed animal trainer. He was the subject of much discussion of women trying to earn a living. One victim took the police to the area where the rape occurred. While there the police heard a woman scream and caught Mr. Huskey raping another woman. The trial did not go any where because victim refused to testify. Nevertheless the rape investigation continued until Mr. Huskey was arrested and indicted November 1992. the indictment contains five counts of aggravated rape, two of rape, two of especially aggravated kidnapping, 11 of aggravated kidnapping, two of aggravated robbery and one of robbery. Mr. Huskey was convicted in 1995 and 1996 of raping several women. He refused to pay for sex. He was sentenced to 66 years in prison. The prosecution surmised that Mr. Huskey began killing September 1992. He was charged with four counts of first-degree murder in 1993. Huskey has pleaded innocent by reason of insanity. He claimed to have multiple personality just like the Bellingham Washington murderer Bianchi. The defense claimed Huskey was possessed of multiple personalities he can't control or remember, including an evil alter ego named 'Kyle,' who confessed to the killings. The prosecution says Huskey was faking a ruse to avoid a death sentence. The prosecutor had decided to seek the death penalty. A mistrial was declared January 1999. The jury of nine women and three men could not decide whether he was insane when he committed the murders after four days of deliberation. The jury was dead locked at 6 to 6. The prosecutor said that, even if Huskey suffered from a mental defect, he could be convicted if he could "appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct" or retained a "substantial capacity to conform his conduct." Mental health experts disagreed on whether Huskey suffers from multiple personalities. Mr. Huskey was a divorced father of two and a former Knoxville Zoo worker.

Daniel G. Payton, 37 (35) (30) – Ohio 1997, 2002 Truck Driver

Nellie Evelyn Howard, 72
Tabitha Jo Bogart, 21

Nellie Howard lived in Scioto County near Portsmouth, Ohio. She was murdered in 1997. Her body was found in a wooded area near Minford. Tabitha Bogart was hitchhiking in Fayette County from Texas to Ohio when she was murdered in 2002. A truck driver found her body near Interstate 75 on Route 35. The murders of these two women were linked by DNA in 2004 to the same assailant. Mr. Payton was not charged for these murders. Instead he was easily convicted for rape. Just after he pleaded guilty February 23, 2004 to three counts of rape one of which was the rape of a 12-year old girl in Scioto County, Ohio Mr. Daniel Payton's lawyer, Mr. Pat Apel said, "He was very remorseful for his actions. He wanted to save his family any more embarrassment" and avoid a trial. Really! Mr. Payton was once Nellie Howard's neighbor. She knew him. She would not necessarily be frightened of him. Ms. Bogart was hitchhiking. Mr. Payton was once a truck driver. Scioto County Common Pleas Judge Howard Harcha III sentenced Payton to consecutive sentences of 10 years each on two rape counts and 10-years-to-life imprisonment on a rape charge specifying him a sexually violent predator. For these crimes he maybe sentenced to 30 years in prison. In exchange for Payton's guilty plea, prosecutors dropped a fourth rape charge and specifications that force was used to commit the crimes. Payton threatened his victim with a stun gun. He wants to spare his family embarrassment. How about the pain and suffering of his victims and their families?

October 27, 2005 Daniel Payton pleaded guilty to the aggravated rape and murder of Nellie Evelyn Howard. He was sentenced to 29 years to life for her death. February 23, 2006 Mr. Payton pleaded guilty to the kidnapping, rape and aggravated murder of Tabitha Jo Bogart. He avoided the death penalty.

Nellie Howard was murdered in 1997. Tabitha Bogart was murdered in 2002 what did he do in between this time. How long was he a truck driver? Did he travel through the nine states where bodies were found? Daniel Payton has at least 12,045 days to spend in prison before reaching the age 70.

Donald Eugene Couch, 28 California Laborer - Parolee

Linda Kay Freeby, 30

In 1986 the police in Chula Vista, California were looking for a Mr. Donald Eugene Couch for the murder of Linda Kay Freeby. Mr. Couch, alias, Donald Stokes, was paroled from prison March 1985. He served three years in prison for burglary and a sexual assault. A no-bail warrant was issued for his arrest February 1986 on a parole violation because evidence taken from the Linda Freeby's murder scene implicated him in her murder. Ms. Freeby's body was found January 24, 1986 in Palm City. She was strangled to death and her body was left on the street. Linda Freeby also lived in Chula Vista, California.

Harvey Miguel Robinson, 19 (17) (18) 1992 – 1993 STD

Joan Mary Burghardt, 29 Charlotte Schmoyer, 15
Jessica Fortney, 47 Rape victim, 38 (survived)

"I'm not a rape victim. I'm a survivor of a homicide."
Rape victim, 38,

"You won't see a more appropriate case in which the death penalty should be imposed."
District Attorney Robert Steinberg

Joan Mary Burghardt, Jessica Fortney and Charlotte Schmoyer lived in Pennsylvania. Joan Mary Burghardt worked as a nurse's aid. She was murdered in her home August 1992. She was hit 37 times in the head. Charlotte Schmoyer, 15, worked as a newspaper delivery person for the Morning Call. June 9, 1993 she was abducted from her route. She was stabbed 16 times in the back, 6 times in the neck and 3 other stab wounds to the body. Jessica Fortney's daughter found her body in her home June 14, 1993. She was beaten and strangled. Fortney was killed on the first floor of a three-story row home, while family members slept upstairs. June 20, 1992 a 5 year old child was assaulted in her home while her parents slept. When the assailant left the child called her mother. Later the child identified Harvey Robinson as her attacker. He choked the child. He lived with his mother. Harvey Robinson was arrested July 31, 1993 after he broke into a woman's home for the third time. Harvey M. Robinson, 19, was charged with three rapes and an attempted murder Robinson was convicted April 1994 and sentenced to 40 to 80 years in prison. Harvey Robinson will be eligible for parole at the age of 59. The police were staking out the woman's house. He raped, choked and beat the woman on her front lawn June 18, 1993. The woman was awarded a civilian commendation for helping the police by allowing them to stake out her home.

Mr. Robinson committed his first criminal offense age 9. How do you explain evil? How do you explain a man entering a house raping a child and living with his behavior? How do you explain a man entering a woman's house and raping her on her lawn and returning to that house for a third time to inflict fear and pain? The answer is fear. He wanted to inflict fear. He wanted to think about the fear generated in his victim. He wanted to imagine how they felt and believing he had the power to control their lives by returning time and time again inflicting the same pain over and over again. He was pushing himself testing himself seeing how far he could go. He was telling himself I am strong, I am brave, I am invincible. No one can do anything about me. This young man was clearly just getting started he had a series of plans to put into effect. This man was dedicated to evil and he did not want to change this is why counseling had no affect on him. Mr. Robinson killed Mrs. Burghardt in 1992 then he was arrested September 1992 and placed in a juvenile facility for another offense. He was released from the juvenile facility May 1993 the next month he began killing again. When Robinson was charged for the murders and rapes of Joan Mary Burghardt, Jessica Fortney, Charlotte Schmoyer, and the rape of the 5 year old his attorney asked for three separate trials. His strategy, avoid the death penalty. At 3:34 p.m., November 10, 1994, the court clerk stood and read: "We, the jury, unanimously sentence the defendant to death." The judge and the jury were visibly upset.

Arkansas rape victim

"My father never had a chance to ever have any memory of his mother."
Seabree Burnett, granddaughter

Cheryl Burnett was raped and murdered June 5, 1965. The only items taken were a camera and a crucifix. The official cause of death was manual strangulation. Evidence recovered from the crime scene revealed that the victim had been sexually assaulted and that evidence provided a DNA profile of the offender. June 14, 1965, Scripps Institution of Oceanography graduate student William Dowd was found beaten to death in his apartment in San Diego. June 23, 1965 Lola Mercer was assaulted and raped. Her husband, Louis Mercer, 63 was bludgeoned to death trying to defend his wife. In 1965 Clyde Carl Wilkerson was convicted of a sexual assault in California. Wilkerson was convicted in November 1965 of brutally assaulting a La Mesa woman after he broke into her apartment in July 1965. January 25, 1976 a 32 year old woman using a telephone at a gas station in Judsonia, Arkansas was raped. In 2002 Detectives in Tulsa, Okla., linked Clyde Wilkerson through DNA to the rape and murder of Geraldine Martin, 28, in February 1975. Geraldine Martin lived in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Geraldine Martin, 28, was abducted February 5, 1975, from the parking lot of the downtown campus of the Tulsa Junior College. Her body was found three weeks later in a vacant apartment. She'd been strangled and raped. Evidence collected from the rape of Mrs. Mercer, the murder of her husband and the murder of Cheryl Burnett was linked to Clyde Wilkerson through his DNA. He pleaded guilty March 2003 based on a warrant for two murders in El Cajon, California. Clyde Carl Wilkerson was sentenced to an indeterminate life sentence with the possibility of parole in 7 years. California's death-penalty law was not in place when Mr. Mercer and Ms. Burnett were murdered. He will be eligible for parole in Oklahoma in 20 years. Clyde Wilkerson was not eligible for capital punishment or life without parole in Oklahoma because those punishments were not options at the time of his crime. The death penalty was reinstated here in 1977. Wilkerson told detectives he had routinely used methamphetamine since his teens and would often manufacture it. He used victims' credit cards and forged their checks. Clyde Carl Wilkerson was a long-distance truck driver and had been in every state in the continental United States. Clyde Wilkerson has at least 2,190 days to spend in prison until his death at age 70.
